For the first time ever, dozens of historic catechisms are being unearthed and painstakingly restored in this gorgeous, cross-indexed, 20-volume collection.

Ranging from the 1200s to the mid-1900s across many cultures and continents, this series demonstrates the universality and continuity of Catholicism as never before.

The Church's perennial doctrine is presented here in refreshingly clear and elegant terms, often with restored woodcuts and ornaments, and set in a classic binding.

Learn the Faith from the great saints and scholars of centuries past. Hear the "Voice of Tradition"!

"May God bless the work of Tradivox and make it redound to His glory and to the salvation of countless souls."

—Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke

"Intelligently and in a resourceful way, Tradivox presents ancient truths easily and in a user-friendly manner, especially to our young Catholic faithful who are often desirous of knowing the depths of the faith yet do not know where to start." —Gerhard Cardinal Müller

"This collection of catechisms across the centuries known as Tradivox demonstrates the fidelity of the Catholic leadership as their bishops faithfully teach what Christ taught, preserved for us in the apostolic tradition." —Cardinal George Pell

"Tradivox promises to be a treasury of truth and tradition that is desperately needed in the world today." —Bishop Joseph Strickland

"I invite the faithful of the entire world to support this historic effort, as we seek to restore the perennial Catechism of the Church." —Bishop Athanasius Schneider
